INTRODUCTION

On the 348 rolls of this microfilm publication are reproduced the applications submitted for shares of the money that was appropriated for the Eastern Cherokee Indians by the Congress on June 30, 1906. The Eastern Cherokee applications, August 29, 1906-May 26, 1909, are part of the Guion Miller Enrollment Records that are among the records of the U.S. Court of Claims. This publication also includes a general index to Eastern Cherokee applications (two vols.).

History

Before the U.S. Court of Claims was established in 1855 there was no procedure by which claims arising against the U.S. Government could be enforced by suit. Consideration of claims was provided for when the Treasury Department was established in 1789; later acts of the Congress authorized the Department to settle all claims by or against the Government. If a claim was rejected by the Treasury Department, the claimant's only course of action was to appeal directly to the Congress. Petitions to that body for relief had become so numerous by the middle of the 19th century that the Congress was beginning to find it impossible to make the proper and necessary investigations for actions on the claims.

The U.S. Court of Claims was established by an act of February 24, 1855, to hear claims against the United States including those referred to the court by the Congress, based on any law of the Congress, any regulation of an executive department, or any contract with the Government, whether explicit or implied. Under this act the court served only as a factfinding agency, and its conclusions were submitted to the Congress for approval and for the granting of awards. In 1863 the Congress enlarged the court's jurisdiction and gave it authority to render judgments against the Government, with the right of appeal to the Supreme Court. An act of 1925 abolished appeals from the Court of Claims to the Supreme Court and substituted writs of certiorari.

An act approved July 1, 1902 (32 Stat. 726), gave the Court of Claims jurisdiction over any claim arising under treaty stipulations that the Cherokee Tribe, or any band thereof, might have against the United States and over any claims that the United States might have against any Cherokee Tribe or band. Suit for such a claim was to be instituted within 2 years after the act was approved. As a result, three suits were brought before the court concerning grievances arising out of the treaties:

On May 18, 1905, the court decided in favor of the Eastern Cherokees and instructed the Secretary of the Interior to identify the persons entitled to participate in the distribution of funds for payment of the claims. On June 30, 1906, the Congress appropriated more than $1 million for this purpose. The task of compiling a roll of eligible persons was begun by Guion Miller, special agent of the Interior Department. In a decree of April 29, 1907, the court (1) vacated that part of its earlier decision that had given the Secretary of the Interior responsibility for determining the eligibility of claimants and (2) appointed Miller as a special commissioner of the Court of Claims.

The same decree also provided that the fund was to be distributed to all Eastern and Western Cherokee Indians who were alive on May 28, 1906, who could establish the fact that at the time of the treaties they were members of the Eastern Cherokee Tribe or were descendants of such persons, and that they had not been affiliated with any tribe of Indians other than the Eastern Cherokee or the Cherokee Nation. The decree further provided that claimants should already have applications on file with the Commissioner of Indian Affairs, or should file such applications with the special commissioner of the Court of Claims on or before August 31, 1907. Additionally, applications for minors and persons of unsound mind were to be filed by their parents or persons having their care and custody, and applications for persons who had died after May 28, 1906, were to be filed by their children or legal representatives.

In his report of May 28, 1909, Miller stated that 45,847 separate applications had been filed, representing a total of about 90,000 individual claimants, 30,254 of whom were enrolled as entitled to share in the fund--3,203 residing east and 27,051 residing west of the Mississippi River. On June 10, 1909, the court confirmed and approved the roll, submitted by Miller in his report, of Eastern Cherokees who were entitled to a share of the fund except "so much as shall be expected (excepted) to on or before August 30, 1909." After the exceptions had been filed and investigated, Miller submitted a supplemental report and roll to the court on January 5, 1910. In this report he stated that about 11,750 exceptions had been made, that the names of 610 persons (238 east and 372 west of the Mississippi) had been added to the roll, and that the names of 44 persons (5 east and 39 west of the Mississippi) had been stricken from the roll because clerical errors in enrollment had been discovered. Thus the final figure on the total number of persons entitled to share in the fund was 30,820, of which 3,436 persons resided east and 27,384 resided west of the Mississippi River. On March 15, 1910, the court finally decreed that the rolls be approved and that, after certain deductions for expenditures, payments were to be made equally among the Eastern Cherokees who were enrolled. The court also authorized the Secretary of the Treasury to issue a warrant in favor of each person.

In certifying the eligibility of the Cherokees, Miller used earlier census lists and rolls that had been made of the Cherokees by Hester, Chapman, Drennen, and others between 1835 and 1884. Copies of some of these rolls and the indexes to them are filed with the Miller records (filmed as M685). Other enrollment records used by Miller are among the classified subject files of the Bureau and are designated as "33931-11-053 Cherokee Nation."

Records

The applications contain sworn evidences of identity and were filed with the Interior Department's Office of Indian Affairs until April 29, 1907 (the last application was No. 22268), after which the applications were filed directly with the court. The application required each claimant to state fully his or her English and Indian names, residence, age, place of birth, name of husband or wife, name of tribe, and names of children. It further required the English and Indian names of the claimant's parents and grandparents, place of their birth, place of their residence in 1851 if they were living at that time, dates of their death, and a statement as to whether any of them had ever before been enrolled as Indians for annuities or other benefits and, if so, with what tribe. Each claimant was also to furnish the names of all brothers and sisters, with their ages and residences, and the names and residences of all uncles and aunts. Applications were required to be made under oath and to be supported by affidavits of two witnesses who were well acquainted with the applicant. With each application is a card showing final action taken and the reasons therefore. Filed with many of the applications are inquiries concerning the status of the cases, requests for further evidence, protests about unfavorable actions, form letters that had been sent by the special commissioner to the applicants as notices of rejection of their applications and returned by the Post Office Department as unclaimed, affidavits and statements of witnesses, powers of attorney, and last wills and testaments. The applications are arranged by the number assigned at the time the application was received. There are some gaps in the application numbers; these are explained on insert sheets at the appropriate places on the film. The index is arranged alphabetically by name (either English or Indian) of claimant.

Many of the files contain a cross-reference card to other applications. This cross-reference card often refers to the EX file, the report on exceptions filed by Miller on January 5, 1910.

John Sadler being first duly sworn, deposes and says:

That I am 58 years of age. I claim my Indian descent through both parents. He was about 1/16 Cherokee. Don't know how much my mother claimed, but she was of Cherokee descent. My father was in his seventies when he died and he died in 1902. My mother died in 1865 and was in her thirties. Both parents were born in Jackson Co., Tenn. They went from Jackson Co. to Georgia before the war. They were living in Mo. in 1851. I was born in Missouri. As well as I recollect my father claimed through his father, John Sadler. Don't know where he came from to Tennessee, but he died in Tennessee. My mother claimed through her father, Richard Moore. Neither my father nor mother never lived with the Indians as a member of the tribe nor did I. I nor they were never on any rolls that I know of. I did not make application to the Dawes Commission for enrollment. I am recognized as a white man in the community, but have always been considered to have some Indian blood. All of my children who have married have married white people.

Your petitioners pray that due notice be given to the said commission that an appeal has been taken in the case to your honor's court, and request the said commission to transmit to your honor's court a transcript of all the entries made in the docket of said tribunal relative to the case, together with their applications and all the testimony, all original papers relative thereto, and the decision thereon.

MARY E. TRUITT }
vs.
CHEROKEE NATION. }

OFFICE COMMISSION ON CITIZENSHIP,
TAHLEQUAH, I. T., Oct. 3rd, 1888.

James Truitt, who, being duly sworn, on his oath states as follows, to wit:

I am si-ty years of age and reside in Delaward district, C. N., Afton P. O. In the matter of identification of Mary E. Truitt and her children, I am acquainted with the applicant, Mary E. Truitt.

She is my wife, and I have been acquainted with her since 1854. I knew her father and mother. Her father's name was Wm. Pyatt and her mother's name was Matilda Pyatt. I knew her grandmother. Her name was Betsy or Elizabeth Loving or Loven. When I first became acquainted with them they lived in Cherokee Co., North Carolina. Mrs. Truitt has a family, two children and three grandchildren. The oldest child is named James S. Truitt. His age is 20 years. Next is Charles W. Truitt. His age is 19 years. The three grandchildren are the children of a daughter now dead. Her name was Frances P. Allen and her husband was a white man. Frances — about 28 years old when she died. She left three living children. The oldest was named Lillie M. Allen, age, 7 years; next is Minnie Z. Allen, age, about 5 years, and the youngest is James I. Allen and his age is 2 years.

Cross-examination:

I had a family previous to my marriage with my present wife; had one child by that marriage, which is living and is named Jeremiah Jr. Truitt. He lives in Arkansas. The husband of Frances before mentioned had no family previous to his marriage.

I was born in Buncombe Co., N. C. North Carolina. I lived 27 in Cherokee county, N. C., about two years after I was married. From my history of the family, Wm. Pyatt and his family was living in Cherokee county, N. C., after the general emmigration of the Cherokees west. My understanding from my wife — she was raised in Cherokee Co., N. C., about the Mission Lovens or Loving, heretofore mentioned; lived in the same county. I have never heard my wife say that the family ever drew any money as Cherokees at any time. I never heard them say that they were ever enrolled as Cherokees. I have lived in this nation going on 8 years. I lived on a rented farm.

28 Affidavit of Mary Ann Clark.

MARY C. TRUITT }
vs.
CHEROKEE NATION. }

OFFICE COMMISSION ON CITIZENSHIP,
TAHLEQUAH, I. T., Oct. 2nd, 1888.

Mary Ann Clark, who, first being duly sworn, on her oath states as follows, to wit:

I am a resident of Tahlequah district, C. N., and am 60 years old.

I am acquainted with Mrs. Truitt. I became acquainted with her when I was about 10 or 12 years old, and applicant was somewhat younger than I. She was living at home with her father and mother, and I lived neighbor to her. Applicant and I lived on the Hiawassee, in North Carolina, at Jones's old Mission. Applicant's father's name was Wm. Pyatt, a white man, and her mother was named Matilda Loving. Grandmother of applicant was named Betsy Fair, sometimes called or pronounced Fur. She was as dark as witness, and had black hair and eyes, like an Indian. These parties lived among the Cherokees and was recognized as Indians. These parties were living in North Carolina in 1850, when I left that county. I have never seen Mrs. Truitt in this country. Several of the neighbors who came from North Carolina told me who she married is why I recognize her as the same person.

Cross-examination:

I recollect that a man by the name of John Forgerson told me about the applicant marrying a man by the name of Truitt. I understand that Jo Forgerson is dead. The other parties, have forgotten who they were. I recollect when the Cherokees were taken away from the old nation and brought west. I never became acquainted with Wm. and Matilda Pyatt until after the emmigration of west. I never became acquainted with the Lovings until after the emmigration. The Lovings and Pyatts were all living in North Carolina, Cherokee county, when I left there in 1850. I saw Mr. Truitt, the husband of applicant, about 9 years ago. He came to my house with Rainy Chastine and others. Mr. Truitt told me that he married Elizabeth Truitt; had not married the girl I am testifying about up to the time I left there, in 1850—that is, Elizabeth Pyatt. I think Elizabeth (Pyatt) was about half grown when I left there, in 1850. She had one brother and one sister when I knew her. Wm. Pyatt and Elizabeth, and also the Lovings, was living at a place called Peach Tree, in North Carolina, Cherokee county, three years before I left there, which was in 1850. My father's name was John Timpson. When I left North Carolina, in 1850, I came direct to this country. I was living with my father at the time I am talking about, when he moved down on the Hiawassee.

39 Demurrer and Answer.

Filed Feb. 24, 1897.

Before the Honorables Henry L. Dawes, Frank C. Armstrong, A. S. McKennon, T. B. Cabaniss, and A. B. Montgomery, commissioners.

In the Matter of Application of MARY E. TRUITT, W. L. PYATT, J. W. PYATT, J. N. PYATT et al. for Citizenship in the Cherokee Nation. Nation's No., —; Commission's No., —.

Your respondent, S. H. Mayes, principal chief of the Cherokee nation, comes now and demurs — the said application, and for the grounds thereof says:

1st. That this commission has not jurisdiction over the parties or subject-matter of this controversy and no legal right therefore to hear and determine the same.

2nd. That the application does not state facts sufficient, if true, to show that the applicants are entitled to citizenship.

Respondent, not waiving his aforesaid demurrer, but insisting upon the same, for answer to said application says that Nancy Fair or Nancy "Fur," through whom the petitioners claim to derive their right to citizenship in the Cherokee nation, is not now and has not been a citizen of the Cherokee nation since the removal of said nation west to the Indian Territory as at present located and defined; that their names do not appear on any of the authenticated rolls of said nation; that neither they nor any of their ancestors now reside or ever have resided in the Cherokee nation and Indian Territory as citizens thereof.

Having fully answered, your respondent asks to be hence dismissed.

42 On the — day of —, 189—, the same being one of the regular days of a term of the United States court for the northern district, Indian Territory—Hon. William M. Springer, judge, presiding, at Muscogee, Indian Territory—the following proceedings, amongst others, were had, to wit:

MARY E. TRUITT ET AL., Appellants, }
vs.
THE CHEROKEE NATION, Appellee. }

It is ordered that this cause be, and the same hereby is, referred to N. A. Gibson, Esq., as special master, under rule eight, relative to citizenship cases.

43 MARY E. TRUITT ET AL. } No. 147.
vs.
CHEROKEE NATION. }

Mr. N. A. Gibson, special master, to whom this case was referred, submits the following report:

In the United States Court in the Indian Territory, Northern District, at Muscogee.

MARY E. TRUITT ET AL. }
vs. } #147. Report of Special Master.
THE CHEROKEE NATION. }

I, N. A. Gibson, special master herein, respectfully show to the court that under the general order of court heretofore made I have examined the pleadings and proof herein, which are herewith filed and made a part hereof, and that I find as follows:

I.

That this cause was instituted on September 5th, 1896, when application was made to the commission to the five civilized tribes for citizenship by blood in the Cherokee nation; that the application was denied by the commission on November 7th, 1896, no reasons being given for the decision, and that on January 6, 1897, the parties appealed to this court.

II.

That this application was made by Mary E. Truitt, née Pyatt, and her children and grandchildren, to wit:
44 Z. E. Duncan, J. S., G. M., Chas. W., Rollin B. Truitt, and Lilly, Minnie, and James I. Allen; by William L. Pyatt and his children and grandchildren, Thomas M. and Robert L. Pyatt, and William L., John L., and Stephen V. Carroll; by John W. Pyatt and his son, Lee Pyatt, and by James N. Pyatt and his children, Edna I., Effie S., Elsie K., Mabel, and Willie Pyatt; that these principal claimants are the children of Matilda Pyatt, née Loving, who was the daughter of Elizabeth Loving, née Fair (or Fur), who was the daughter of Nancy Fair or Fur, who died in Cherokee county, North Carolina, in the year 1840, and who is said to have been a half-breed Cherokee Indian.

III.

That the parties file in support of their application for citizenship the affidavits of J. L. Duncan, L. Crawford, Henry H. Hampton, H. M. Harald, Thomas J. Taylor, James Watts, Rebecca Elliott, Catherine Gaines, Rebecca Martin, Wingham Martin, Hulda Wilson, Mary Riley, James Truitt, Mary Ann Clark, William Pyatt, and Matilda Pyatt and a certified transcript of the record of the United States district court for the western district of Arkansas, showing the trial and conviction of John M. Taylor upon charges of perjury and presenting false claims, and showing that he was sentenced to be imprisoned at Detroit for a period of two and a half years for each offense.

IV.

The testimony of the various witnesses shows the names of the applicants, their children and grandchildren, as stated in the applications, to be correct, and shows their descent from Nancy Fair (or Fur) to be as stated by the claimants; that Nancy Fair's maiden name was Choate; that she lived among the Cherokee Indians in North Carolina, in what was known as the Hiawassee purchase; spoke the Cherokee language, and was recognized as a Cherokee Indian by blood. The witnesses unite in their testimony on this point, and I find no controverting testimony introduced by either party.

V.

The testimony discloses the fact that these claimants made application to the Cherokee commission on citizenship for admission to the Cherokee nation as citizens thereof in the year 1888, and that at that time the claimants were residents of the Cherokee nation, Indian Territory; that at present all of the claimants, with the exception of James N. Pyatt and family, who live in Benton county, Arkansas, are residents of the Cherokee nation, Indian Territory, where they have resided for a number of years. The record does not disclose the decision rendered by the commission, and I am unable to make findings of fact upon these points.

VI.

The claimants contend that under the showing made by them, that they are descended from Nancy Fair, who was known to be a Cherokee Indian by blood, they are entitled to admission in the Cherokee nation as citizens by blood, in spite of the fact that they do not show that Nancy Fair was ever enrolled as citizen of the Cherokee nation, while the appellee contends that Nancy Fair has never been enrolled as a citizen of the Cherokee nation or been recognized as a citizen thereof, and that these claimants are now barred from being admitted as citizens thereof.

46 The premises considered, I find that these claimants are the descendants of Nancy Fair, who lived in the Cherokee territory east of the Mississippi river and who was a Cherokee Indian by blood; that these claimants are persons of Cherokee Indian blood, and that they have not shown that Nancy Fair or any of her descendants through whom they claim has ever been enrolled as a citizen of the Cherokee nation by blood.

I respectfully ask that the court will allow me a reasonable fee for my services herein.

Respectfully submitted this 8 day of June, 1897.

N. A. GIBSON,
Special Master.

No exceptions filed. My fee paid.

From this report it appears that the claimants base their right to be enrolled as citizens of the Cherokee nation upon the ground that they are Cherokee Indians by blood. It also appears that the claimants made application to a Cherokee commission on citizenship for admission as citizens thereof in the year 1888, but the record does not disclose what disposition was made of this application. It appears that all the claimants, with the exception of one family, who live in Arkansas, are residents of the Cherokee nation, where they have resided for a number of years, the exact number not being stated.

It does not appear that the claimants or any of their ancestors have ever been enrolled as citizens of the Cherokee nation.

The judgment of the United States commission rejecting this case is affirmed and the application of the claimants to be enrolled as citizens of the United States is denied.

47 At a regular term of the United States court for the northern district, Indian Territory, held at the court-rooms, at Muscogee, Indian Territory—presiding, Hon. William M. Sprin-er, judge of said court.

On the 11th day of December, 1897, the same being one of the regular days of said term of said court, the following proceedings, amongst others, were had, to wit:

MARY E. TRUITT, Z. E. DUNCAN, J. S. TRUITT, G. M. TRUITT, C. W. TRUITT, R. B. TRUITT, Lillie Allen, Minnie Allen, J. S. Allen, W. L. Pyatt, Thos. M. Pyatt, R. L. Pyatt, W. L. Carroll, S. V. Carroll, J. L. Carroll, John W. Pyatt, W. Leroy Pyatt, James N. Pyatt, Edna T. Pyatt, Effie S. Pyatt, Elsa K. Pyatt, Mabel Pyatt, and Will Pyatt, Appellants,

THE CHEROKEE NATION, Appellee.

Comes the above-named appellants, by their solicitors, and also comes the above-named appellee, by its solicitor, and this cause having been heretofore submitted to the court upon application for citizenship of said appellants and the answer and demurrer of appellee and the evidence for both parties on file in the case and the master's report, and the court, having been now well and sufficiently advised in the premises, doth find the issues for the appellee, The Cherokee Nation.

It is therefore by the court considered, ordered, and decreed that the said appellants in this cause be, and they and each of them are hereby, refused admission and enrollment as citizens of said nation, and the judgment and decision of the commission to the five civilized tribes is in all things approved and affirmed at costs to appellants, and that execution issue therefor; to which action of the court in refusing to admit and enroll the appellants and each of them as citizens of the Cherokee nation they and each of them at the time except.

2. In rendering judgment against the plaintiffs and denying their rights to citizenship in the Cherokee nation.

3. Because the judgment of the court was contrary to the law and evidence in this case.

THE CHEROKEE NATION, Defendants.

Now come the above-named plaintiffs, by their attorneys, and say that in the foregoing record and proceedings there is manifest error in the action and rulings of the United States court in the Indian Territory for the northern district thereof and the Dawes commission to the five civilized tribes, in this, to wit:

Said Dawes commission erred:

- 1st. In rendering a decision on claims adversely to the appellants and against the proof submitted by the appellants.
2. In refusing appellants the right to produce proof in rebuttal.
3. In refusing appellants the right to be present in person or by attorney during the trial and determination of their claims.
- 4th. In refusing to issue process for witnesses and to send for persons and papers when requested to do so by appellants.
- 5th. That said commission erred in forcing appellants to furnish certified copies of their application and evidence to defendant and allowing defendant thirty days in which to answer, and then denying appellants or their attorneys the right to see said answer.

Said United States court erred:

- 1st. In affirming the judgment of the Dawes commission to the five civilized tribes, which denied the applications of plaintiffs praying admission to citizenship in the Cherokee nation.
- 2nd. In rendering judgment against the plaintiffs and denying their rights to citizenship in the Cherokee nation.
- 3rd. Because the judgment of the Dawes commission and the judgment of the United States court for the northern district denying to plaintiffs citizenship in the Cherokee nation are contrary to the evidence in the case.

Wherefore, for divers errors on the face of the record, the plaintiffs pray that said proceedings, as well as the decree of the United States court in the Indian Territory for the northern district thereof, may be reversed and set aside.

I claim to be connected by blood to the Cherokee tribe of Indians through my father and his mother. My father died in 1894 and was about 70 years old. He was born in Cocke Co., Tenn. I claim my Indian blood through Mary Bottoms. Bottoms was her maiden name. I don't know where my grandmother was born. My father and grandmother were recognized as ~~Indians~~ white people. I never heard of my father or grandmother living with the Indians. I never heard of my father or grandmother being enrolled or getting any money from the Government on account of the Indian blood. My father was living in Cocke Co., Tenn. in 1851. I was living in Cocke County in 1882. I never heard of my grandmother living with the Cherokee tribe. I did not hear anything about an enrollment in 1882 that is the reason I was not enrolled. I don't know the name of the Indian ancestor through whom I got my Indian blood.

I have a brother named Ally U. Smith who has filed an application herein.

My name is John A. Smith; I live in Stephenson, Ala.; I was born in 1844 in Jackson Co., Ala. I claim through my mother and her mother; my father was a white man. My mother died in 1858; she was about fifty when she died. Grandmother Lucy Smith came down the Tennessee River in a boat; they were, (mother and grandmother) recognized as indians. Mother always lived with the white people; grandmother lived with the white people- don't know where she came from, only that she came down the river in a boat and don't know from where. I have always heard that my grandmother was an indian; she was called Indian Lucy. Neither mother nor grandmother were ever enrolled with the Cherokee indians and never got any money or land from the government on account of their indian blood. I never heard anything about the Cherokee indians being enrolled in 1851 or 1882.

I never heard my mother say anything about a treaty that the government made with the indians in 1835.

I think my grandmother indian Lucy that I claim through was a Cherokee indian because the lady that she worked for and lived with said that she was a Cherokee indian.

Testimony in the case of Samuel H. Carter.

William A. B. Carter being first duly sworn, deposes and says:

My name is William A. B. Carter; I live at or near Scottsboro; I am eighty-four years of age; I was born in 1824-
I am the father of Samuel H. Carter.

His mother told me before we were married that she had indian blood in her of the Cherokee tribe. She said that both her parents had indian blood but that her father had the most; her mother's name was Nancy Shamblyn before she was married to Gregory Smith. My wife was born in 1837 in East Tenn. Her parents were both born and raised in East, Tenn. People would say that my wife and her parents were part indians. They lived with the white people;
I never heard of my wife or her parents living with the Cherokee tribe- I don't know anything about her grand-parents- her grandfather's name was John Smith. My wife didn't show her indian blood much and didn't like to talk about it. Kiskey Smith was her grandmother and she thought her grand-father and grandmother were registered. I don't think that my wife nor her father or mother were enrolled. Neither my wife nor her parents ever got any money or land from the government on account of their indian blood. I suppose my wife was living in East Tennessee in 1851;
We were all living in this country in 1882- I didn't hear of any enrollment of the Cherokees at that time. She had an uncle by the name of Robert Smith. I have heard my wife speak something about a treaty in about 1835- wasn't that when the Ross and Ridge parties were disputing for this country?

Marion Oliver Carlisle being first duly sworn,
deposes and says:

My name is Marion Oliver Carlisle; I live at Rash, Ala.; I am the husband of Sarah M. Carlisle who died on the 25th day of June, 1908. I have five children, all living at the present time, whose names and ages are as follows: Letitia Anne, born June 18th, 1895; Helen Elizabeth born Dec. 15th, 1896; Albert F., born Jan. 23rd, 1900;
James Edward, born Oct. 26th, 1902; Claude Bell, born Oct.
10th, 1908.

My wife filed an application No. 31919 for herself and children above named. My wife claimed her indian blood through her mother and her mother's father; my wife's mother's name was Martha Molt, nee Hayes- she was born in 1854; I think maybe she was born in North Carolina. My wife's mother always lived with the white people. I never knew her father. My wife never got any money or land from the government on account of her having indian blood.

both knew him in Cocke Co., Tenn. He was born in North Caroline in Rutherford Co.; we both knew him first about 1867 in Cocke Co.; he lived with the white people; he and his brother John and Harve and his sisters Polly Parker and Sally were the only people with indian blood who lived around in that part of the county. We never heard the names of his father and mother. He claimed Cherokee blood. All we know about him is what he told us and that he looked like an indian.

Sir:-

In reply to your letter of August 22, 1907, you are advised that we cannot state, at the present time, just what additional proof will be required in connection with your application for participation in the Eastern Shoresee Fund, as the applications have not been taken up for final consideration.

As there are already over 30,000 applications on file and the claimants are widely scattered through the United States, it will necessarily take considerable time to have all of these cases adjudicated, and until they are so determined no money can be distributed.

If there is any further information required in connection with your application you will be advised.

This last paper I have been up in Tennessee, trying to find to find some of the old people, but I think they are all dead that would know anything about it in 1830-so I don't know anything was not ashamed to own

she married in 1850, and

That I am 31 years of age. I am enrolled by the Dawes Commission Roll 3958. I claim my Indian descent through my mother; my father was a white man. My mother claimed through her mother, I think. My mother died in January 1907. She was about 53 years old. My grandmother was Lucy Mc Daniel. She married a Sutton. Eli Sutton was my grandfather on my mother's side. He was a white man. Don't think my grandmother received any Old Settler money. Malinda Sutton (O. S. Group 222 ?) was a half sister of my mother on the father's side. Possibly Joshua and Levi were half brothers. Mose and Nancy Mc Daniel were my great grandparents on my mother's side. Their children were Nollie, Joe, Robert, Lucy (my grandmother) and Charlotte (O. S. Skin Bayou 250). Louella Fine is my half sister on the mother's side. Her father is a white man.

Mary C. Griffin being first duly sworn, deposes and says.

That I am 49 years of age. I claim my Indian descent through my father; my mother is also part Cherokee. My father claimed 1/2 Cherokee; my mother claimed to be 1/3 Cherokee. Both are living in Granger Co., Tenn. My father was 50 when I left there and I left there 3 years ago. My mother is 57 years old. I don't know whether they have filed applications or not. My husband is a white man. My father claimed Indian through his father, Enoch Bates. My mother claimed through her father, Alfred Roach. I don't know whether either of my parents ever lived with the Indians as members of the tribe or not. I never did. I am recognized as a mixed-blooded woman in the community where I live. I don't know whether either of my parents were ever on any rolls. Never heard that they were. Neither of my parents or their parents received land or money from the government by reason of their Indian blood, that I know of. This is the only application I ever made for Indian benefits. My father has a brother, Philip Bates, who is living. Jacob, John and Noah were other brothers of my father. Melvinie, Polly, Julia were sisters of my mother. Algy, Frank, Dalton and Jack were brothers of my mother. My parents were born and raised in Granger Co., Tenn. So were my grandparents and they all died there. I was a small girl when my grandparents died. Don't know how old they were when they died but they were old people.

John T. Wilburn being first duly sworn, deposes and says:

That I am 48 years of age and live in Red River Co., Tex. I claim my Indian descent through my father; my mother was a white woman. My wife is a white woman. My father claimed Indian descent through his father, Bill Wilburn. My father was born in Va. and my grandfather was born there too (Powhatan Co.) My father died in 1869 and was 47 years of age when he died. My father left Va. about 1850 or 1851 and came to Mississippi. Don't know when my grandfather died but think it was a short time before the war. I think my grandfather came with the Indians to this territory when they first came here. Don't know when that was. If my father lived with the Indians, it was in Georgia - down near Alabama. My father claimed 1/4 Cherokee. My father was descended from the Pocahontas tribe of Indians. I am recognized as a white man in the community. Don't know how my father was recognized. I think my grandfather was on some roll. He always had the name of Wilburn. Jack, George, Bob, Egbert and Powhatan were brothers of my father, and he had a sister named Mary. My father nor his father never received anything from the government that I know of. I made claim about ten years ago to the Dawes Commission but never heard anything more of it, because the time had expired. My father never lived with the Indians that I know of. I never did.

Madam:

Replying to your letter of July 11, 1909, you are advised that the reason your minor children were not included with you on the Eastern Cherokee Roll was because you did not name them in your application.

If you desire to file an exception with the Court you should do so before August 30, 1909. The inclosed circular letter will give you the information necessary for filing exceptions.

SPECIAL COMMISSIONER OF THE COURT OF CLAIMS, EASTERN CHEROKEE ENROLLMENT, 601 OURAY BUILDING,
WASHINGTON, D. C.

Sir:

Replying to your letter of recent date relative to the Eastern Cherokee enrollment, you are advised that since filing my report of May 28, 1909, with the Court of Claims, the matter has passed entirely beyond my control.

My report sets forth why, in my opinion, the claims admitted should be admitted and those rejected should be rejected. The matter now rests with the Court and the only way that my decision can be reviewed is by filing exceptions in accordance with the order of the Court of June 10, 1909.

No blank forms will be furnished for the filing of these exceptions.

Under the order of the Court of Claims of April 29, 1907, it was necessary for claimants to file an application prior to August 31, 1907, and to prove that they were Eastern Cherokee Indians by blood, descended from Indians who were recognized parties to the Treaties of 1835-6, and 1846, and to further prove that they were not Old Settler Cherokees, and that they, or their immediate ancestors, had not since the Treaty of 1846 affiliated with any tribe or band of Indians other than the Cherokee Nation.

The application about which inquiry is made in your letter was rejected because the claimant failed to bring himself within these requirements.

Very respectfully,

GUION MILLER,

Special Commissioner.

Madam:

In the matter of the enrollment of the Eastern Cherokees for participation in the fund arising from the judgment of the Court of Claims in their favor, you are advised that your name was by mistake enrolled as one entitled to share in said fund. It appears, however, that you were enrolled as an Old Settler Cherokee in 1851, with your mother, brother and sisters, in Going Snake District, Group 24.

Under the terms of the decree of the Court of Claims, and of the decision of the Supreme Court of the United States, the Old Settler Cherokees are not entitled to share in this money. I have, therefore, reported to the Court that you and your children are not entitled to be enrolled, and that your names should be struck from the roll of Eastern Cherokees.

Very respectfully,

Special Commissioner.

Sir:

In the matter of the enrollment of the Eastern Cherokees for participation in the fund arising from the judgment of the Court of Claims in their favor, you are advised that you and your minor child were enrolled, by mistake, as entitled to share in said fund. It appears, however, that your father was a white man and that you claim only through your mother, Celina K. Stewart, who was enrolled under the name of Salina Foreman, with her mother, brother and sisters as an Old Settler Cherokee, in Going Snake District, Group 24.

Under the terms of the decree of the Court of Claims, and of the decision of the Supreme Court of the United States, the Old Settler Cherokees are not entitled to share in this money. I have, therefore, reported to the Court that you and your child are not entitled to be enrolled, and that your names should be struck from the roll of Eastern Cherokees.

My report sets forth why, in my opinion, the claims admitted should be admitted and those rejected should be rejected. The matter now rests with the Court and the only way that my decision can be reviewed is by filing exceptions in accordance with the order of the Court of June 10, 1909.

No blank forms will be furnished for the filing of these exceptions.

Under the order of the Court of Claims of April 29, 1907, it was necessary for claimants to file an application prior to August 31, 1907, and to prove that they were Eastern Cherokee Indians by blood, descended from Indians who were recognized parties to the Treaties of 1835-3, and 1846, and to further prove that they were not Old Settler Cherokees, and that they, or their immediate ancestors, had not since the Treaty of 1846 affiliated with any tribe or band of Indians other than the Cherokee Nation.

The application about which inquiry is made in your letter was rejected because the claimant failed to bring himself within these requirements.

Very respectfully,

GUION MILLER,

Special Commissioner.

Sir:

In the matter of the enrollment of the Eastern Cherokees for participation in the fund arising from the judgment of the Court of Claims in their favor, you are advised that your name was by mistake enrolled as one entitled to share in said fund. It appears, however, that your father was a white man and that your claim only through your mother, Celina W. Stewart, who was enrolled under the name of Salina Foreman, with her mother, brother and sisters as an Old Settler Cherokee, in Going Snake District, Group 24.

Under the terms of the decree of the Court of Claims, and of the decision of the Supreme Court of the United States, the Old Settler Cherokees are not entitled to share in this money. I have, therefore, reported to the Court that you are not entitled to be enrolled, and that your name should be struck from the roll of Eastern Cherokees.

Your child, of course, will be entitled through his mother.

Very respectfully,

Sir:

In the matter of the enrollment of the Eastern Cherokees for participation in the fund arising from the judgment of the Court of Claims in their favor, you are advised that your name was by mistake enrolled as one entitled to share in said fund. It appears, however, that your father was a white man and that you claim only through your mother, Celina W. Stewart, who was enrolled under the name of Salina Foreman, with her mother, brother and sisters as an Old Settler Cherokee, in Going Snake District, Group 24.

Under the terms of the decree of the Court of Claims, and of the decision of the Supreme Court of the United States, the Old Settler Cherokees are not entitled to share in this money. I have, therefore, reported to the Court that you are not entitled to be enrolled, and that your name should be struck from the roll of Eastern Cherokees.

Very respectfully,

Special Commissioner.
